DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 5-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jakobi et al (6,043,459) in view of Carter et al (5,791,308).

Jakobi teaches an electrically heatable glow plug 1, having a corrosion-resistant glow pipe 7, which is closed at the end and contains a filling of electrically non-conductive, compacted powder 10 in which an electrically conductive coil 9 is embedded. However, he does not teach a surface-hardened coil. Carter teaches a glow plug 2 with a surface-hardened electric coil 6. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to modify Jakobi's glow plug to include a hardened-surface coil as taught by Carter in order to provide an operation even with temperature excursions over 1700 degree Kelvin as taught by Carter (col. 2, lines 45-56), and also apply this teaching to the method of making the glow plug.

As for claims 7-9 and 12-13 are product-by-process claims, and patentability of the product does not depend on its method of production (See MPEP 2113).

Response to Arguments

3. In response to applicant's argument that the examiner's conclusion of obviousness is based upon improper hindsight reasoning, it must be recognized that any judgment on obviousness is in a sense necessarily a reconstruction based upon hindsight reasoning. But so long as it takes into account only knowledge which was within the level of ordinary skill at the time the claimed invention was made, and does not include knowledge gleaned only from the applicant's disclosure, such a reconstruction is proper. See In re McLaughlin, 443 F.2d 1392, 170 USPQ 209 (CCPA 1971).

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
